

Stony Brook Program in Experimental Economics

Saturday, Sunday and the first talk on Monday will consist of drafts of survey papers intended for The Handbook of Experimental Economics: Vol 2 (J. Kagel and A. Roth (eds)).

Saturday July 14

9:30-9:35 Opening remarks:

9:35-10:35 Muriel Niederle: Different Groups: Gender/discrimination, cross cultural

10:35-10:50 G. Frechette - -Discussant

10:50-11:05 Coffee break

11:05-12:05 John Duffy: Macro

12:05-12:20 C. Noussair – Discussant

12:20 – 2:30 Lunch break

2:30-3:30 Ido Erev & Ernan Haruvy: Learning

3:30-3:45 A. Schotter – Discussant

3:45-4:00 Coffee break

4:00-5:00 D. Cooper and J. Kagel: Other regarding preferences

5:00 – 5:15 J. Rotemberg – Discussant

Sunday July 15

9:30-10:30 J. Anderoni and L. Vesterlund: Public Goods

10:30-10:45 J. Ledyard -Discussant

10:45-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-12:00 A. Roth: Market Design

12:00-12:15 P. Milgrom – Discussant

12:15 – 2:00 Lunch break

2:00-3:00 J. Kagel and D. Levin: Auctions

3:00-3:15 E. Maskin – Discussant

3:15-3:30 Coffee break

3:30-4:30 C. Holt: Industrial Organization

4:30 – 4:45 J. Peck – Discussant

Reception dinner at “Curry Club” restaurant

Monday July 16

9:30-10:30 D. Laibson et al.: Neuroeconomics

10:30-10:45 A. Caplin – Discussant

10:45-11:00 Coffee break

11:00-11:45 John Nash, Jr. – “The Agencies Method for Modeling Coalitions and Cooperation in Games: Experimental Evidence.”

12:00-1:30 Lunch

1:30-2:30 Round table discussion: “What’s missing, where do we need to go and other issues in experimental economics”

Panelists: Alvin Roth, Charles Holt, Paul Milgrom John Ledyard, Muriel Niederle

3:00 – 3:15 Coffee break

Adjourn